Gaiole In Chianti - Siena, Tuscany

In the heart of Chianti in Tuscany Italy, between Radda and Gaiole, immersed in a beautiful natural surrounding, a few minutes from the famous castles and hamlets of the zone, we find a prestigious and particular, the Mulino.

The Mulino, one of the best hotels in Chianti Tuscany, originally was a Medieval Mill, has been carefully restored respecting its original historical structure, while at the same time allowing for all the modern amenities and comforts of a top Hotel. Modern and past are always mixed up, the modern swimming pool was the water millpond for the activation of the wooden wheel. The terrace where now you can enjoy breakfast and lunch, used to be the storeroom for the corn.

Its medieval roots can be seen and feel walking on the narrow roads or on the "Camminamento Medievale" medieval walking recently renovated. For those who like to taste the local wines and olive oil, within a short distance an find all the most important wineries of the Chianti.

In about 20 minutes drive you will be in Siena or San Gimignano, if you are interested in shopping you can find the most famous outlets of the Italian designers within 15 and 30 minutes drive

Mulino, an exclusive accommodation in Chianti Tuscany, offers its guests complete comfort and tranquillity thanks to the enchanting beauty of its architectural features and the natural scenery of its setting.

Many things will take you to the middle age when the wooden wheel was working, to reach your room you will have to pass on the millrace. Typical of the Chianti area is the main hall with its 13 arches.
