Farm Holiday Figline Valdarno

Figline Valdarno - Florence, Tuscany

What has remained today is the medieval village and up until a few years ago were the ruins of an ancient structure annexed to the castle. Today this old complex has been restored and brought back to life, respecting its original characteristics and using traditional materials but yet offering all of the modern comforts that one may desire. Farm Holiday is located in an extremely panoramic area bordering Chianti and is at the centre of an artistic triangle which includes the cities of Florence, Siena and Arezzo. Vacationing at this agritourism is ideal for those who are interested in complete relaxation in touch with nature and also having the possibility to easily reaching the most important artistic and historical sites of Tuscany and Umbria. Among them are to be mentioned the small romanic ancient churches of Valdarno, the most important of which is just S. Romolo at Gaville, the medieval towns of S. Gimignano, Cortona, Volterra and the park of the casentinese forests with the hermitages of Verna and Camaldoli, which were quite dear to S. Francesco; last but not least there is also Chianti with its splendid farm houses, medieval villages and ancient castles. Farm Holiday is only 7km from Figline Valdarno, among its beautiful town square in the historical center you can find various shops, boutiques, pharmacies, pubs, restaurants and banks and the beauty of the medieval walls running along the town. In Figline there is also a train station with trains leaving for Florence's central station every half hour arriving in less than twenty minutes. The A1 highway is just 4 km away.
