Radda In Chianti - Siena, Tuscany

In a scenic Palace located in Radda in Chianti, an enchanting medieval village embraced by ancient walls, in the heart of gorgeous Siena countryside amidst gentle hills, woods, grapes and olive trees, there you find Hotel , a four star hotel, just 30 minutes from Siena. Precious materials, authentic frescoes merged in a magic atmosphere to offer you an unforgettable experience, full of comfort and top quality services. Hotel is the right place to be ravished by Tuscany charm.

You can experience the sensation of a journey back in time, surrounded by precious objects, characteristic Tuscan materials and high quality comfort in a medieval palace that dates back to 1400, with its original liberty frescoes and antique decorations. The Hotel is located in the heart of the old town center of Radda in Chianti, a charming old town in the Siena countryside. Radda is surrounded by its medieval town walls and is filled with sumptuous sixteenth century palaces that look out onto the winding alleyways and picturesque little squares. The extremely old Pieve di Santa Maria Novella, full of several works of art, is particularly interesting.

The building that has been turned into the hotel, one of the prettiest in the town, was recently renovated keeping the original structure and has sophisticated, exclusive communal spaces such as the large Hall and the meeting room that has been converted from an old wine cellar. The rooms still have the feel of the olden days that is part of the hotel, but at the same time they all have all modern comforts. The Hotel welcomes guests with small pets.
